There is a golf tournament going to be held and all the animals are on the grounds watching. The Judge points to a big loving cup which he says will be awarded the winner. The tournament is on.

Julius is to tee off first. He takes out a book of rules and starts reading it, keeping the crowd waiting. They razz him. A Bear, the Champ, pushes Julius out of the way, does a dance, and bows, then as he is about to drive, Julius gets in the way. After this happens several times, the Bear finally does drive and walks to the next hole. Julius reads his rule book again and after trying to imitate the Champ, finally does hit the ball which comes down and hits him on the head. He then is desperate. He takes the ball, places it on the ground and gives it a foot-ball goal kick.

A bird in the air catches the ball. He flies to his nest and gets two eggs. He then flies off juggling the two eggs and the golf ball. Julius and his caddy are following his flight waiting for him to drop the ball. Instead he drops the eggs. Julius enraged, shoots and hits him causing him to drop the ball into the 9th hole. Julius drives it from there into the mouth of a yawning Ostrich. The Ostrich runs away and sticks his head in the ground. Julius squeezes the ball out of the Bird's neck. It shoots out and Julius runs after it. At the 18th hole Alice, the Judge and the gang are all waiting. Suddenly Julius's ball drops into the hole and along comes Julius after it. The judge awards him with the cup. He is dumbfounded and keels over.
